- Candidate must be able to convey information and ideas in a clear, concise and professional manner.
- Develop and implement lesson plans that align with the school's curriculum and educational standards.
- A firm understanding of and a passion for working with High School students
- Appropriate level of subject-matter knowledge.

- Skill at establishing learning objectives for students consistent with curriculum objectives.
- Ability to plan diverse, effective, creative and engaging lessons that include: interactive discussion, understanding and application of knowledge, and the nurturing of problem solvers and critical thinkers.
- Establishes and maintains standards of student behavior needed to provide an orderly, productive classroom environment.
- Willingness and ability to foster an affirming yet challenging environment where innovation and creativity are celebrated.
- Broad and diverse pedagogical skills.
- Willingness and desire to maintain excellent communication with parents; build interactive relationships and address family needs within the parameters of the Trinity Oaks mission.
- Proficient in the use of technology.
- Keeps accurate records, ensuring that students are progressing appropriately and monitors progress through report cards, computer grading program, and other methods.
- Willingness to participate in school-based committees, in cooperative effort with other faculty and staff.
- Participate in professional development opportunities to continuously improve teaching skills and stay up-to-date with best practices in history education.
- Attends and supports school-sponsored student activities, and periodic parent partnership events.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in History or a related field (Master's degree preferred).
- Teaching certification or licensure in History or Social Studies.
- Previous experience teaching history at the high school level is strongly preferred.
- Deep knowledge and passion for history, with the ability to effectively communicate complex concepts to students of varying abilities.

Physical demands:

Must have the ability to sit and stand for extended periods of time; exhibit manual dexterity to dial a telephone, to enter data into a computer; to see and read a computer screen and printed material with or without vision aids; hear and understand speech at normal classroom levels, outdoors and on the telephone; speak in audible tones so that others may understand clearly in normal classrooms, outdoors and on the telephone; physical agility to lift up to 25 pounds; to bend, stoop, climb stairs, and reach overhead.
